

Giants Defeat Phillies and Climb to the Top

Matty the Mighty Holds the Clan of Doolin in Hollow of His Hand.

ALLOWS ONLY FIVE HITS.

Fred Merkle Slams Out a Home Run Just to Help "Big Six" Carry New York to the Front.

There is only one pitcher, and he is Christy Mathewson. When in the course of baseball events it becomes necessary for the big fellow to emerge from the shelter of the bench, stir his lethargic limbs into action and show cause why he should still be retained on a championship team, there is no reason for exceeding great joy on the part of the opposition. So it happened that when the pitcherless one was picked for duty at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon the Phillies were not convulsed with laughter at the joke; neither did they don the festive jokers to take their medicine, which came in the way of a 3 to 1 defeat.

In the past it has fallen to the lot of Matty to edge in with a victory at epochal moments, and he ran true yesterday. Over the prostrate form of the Phillies the Giants climbed into first place, while the Pirates were being beaten by the Cardinals. Furthermore, it was the first battle in which a New York team, not forgetting Brooklyn, has been returned victor on its own diamond since the season started and broke the ice for the "fans" at the Polo Grounds.

There is a limit to all things. After dominating for twelve years over a lot of helpless hitters who are trying to earn an honest living at baseball it does seem as though a pitcher would be considered enough to retire to the old men's home on a pension. Such promising young fellows as Doolan, Magee, Knabe and Doolan have just cause for complaint. Ever since they first appeared on the National League preserves this fellow Mathewson has been dogging them. They have borne with him a long time, and most assuredly have they earned the sympathy of the "fans" in their rebellion now.

An indignation meeting was held in the clubhouse after the game and resolutions were drawn up to be forwarded to Congress asking for an investigation into the Mathewson trust. The under dog has turned, and if free competition in the manufacturing of safe hits and victories is to be stifled and restrained any longer, the Phillies are going to know the reason why. Charlie Doolan was positive last night that the Sherman law covered the case and could be invoked in the aid of the great oppressor. He insisted that there was no personal motive impelling him, but he intends to fight the cause of all National League ball players.

The most unpleasant feature of the situation and what really roused the Phillies the most was the way the plaintiff concealed his machinations with subtle williness under a fair exterior. He didn't seem to have a thing. Five men were willing to give affidavits to this effect: Paskert and Lobert made hits in the first frame, Luderus and Doolan in the second and Dolan in the fifth, but when they all got tuned up to catch pitch and tried to drive the ball out of the lot they simply could not do it, that's all.

Like all last seven innings Matty retired the side in order. Dolan was the only man to reach first and he was executed in a double play, Shafer making a dazzling catch of Matty's throw and tossing to Merkle. "Big Six" was not philanthropically inclined in the least, and did not give a pass, although he was considerate enough not to press his advantage to the extent of showing the Phillies up, and fanned only four.

Like all last seven innings the Mathewson trust is a firm believer in the conservation of energy and the elimination of waste. His motto is if it is to be done, let it be done quickly as possible, as late suppers are frequently cooked from cold. Hence the demise of the Phillies was accomplished in 1 hour and 26 minutes, which was a decided contrast to some of the three-hour twilight affairs which have been seen recently in the local arena.

Brennan, a southpaw, was picked by Doolan to be the David to the New York Goliath, but it was a poor selection, as the bustle of base hits in the first two innings told. When a single and two passes filled the bases in the third, Brennan was dismissed and Chalmers called to the throne. He started bravely by fanning Merkle in the pinch and forcing Herzog to pop to Lobert.

Chalmers pitched well for the rest of the game, keeping five hits widely scattered. Merkle tenderly caressed the ball in the eighth inning and laid it gently in the left field bleachers for a home run, but he was the only man to cross the plate while Chalmers reigned. Circuit clouts have been profuse at the stadium this season, but Merkle was the first to be made by a home player.

Larry Doyle was back at second base after a three-day suspension, while Meyers was behind the bat. The Indian glared in his lusty make, smashing out three piping hits, while Shafer nicked Brennan for two. Merkle's double and home run were conspicuous as two of New York's three runs resulted therefrom. Doyle rapped out a two-bagger on his first time at bat and made his seventh consecutive hit. He drew a pass on the second attempt, and reached first on a fielder's choice on his next trip. This gave the valiant star a record of getting on the bases nine times in as many consecutive times at bat.

The Giants scored in the first frame. Shodgrass walked as a starter, but was snuffed out taking third on Shafer's single. Paskert making a wonderful play, Arthur reached second on the throw, but was tossed out at third on Burns's grounder to Doolan. Burns stole second and counted on Doyle's double. Murray lifted to Paskert. Merkle's double, Herzog's sacrifice and Meyers's single added a run in the second, while Merkle's home run made it three in the eighth.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Hendrix held St. Louis to two hits, a double and a triple by Konetchy, but these, mixed with errors and passes, gave St. Louis a victory over Pittsburgh by a score of 3 to 1.

St. Louis scored in the second on Konetchy's double, an infield out and Oakes's sacrifice fly.

A fast triple play in the third by Pittsburgh kept St. Louis down to one run in that inning. After Hendrix had forced a run by passing Sheekard with the bases full, Mowry hit to Hendrix, who threw to Kelley, forcing Steele at home. Kelley then threw to Miller, getting the batter, and when Magee tried to score on Miller's throw to Kelley completed the triple play.

St. Louis scored its third run in the fourth inning, when Konetchy tripled and stole home. Singles by Miller and Wilson and O'Leary's wide throw to first gave Pittsburgh its lone tally in the fifth frame.

RUCKER WINS AT LAST

Pitches His Way to Victory Over the Hapless Braves.

SUPERBAS PLAY REAL BALL

Bat Like Fiends and Field Their Positions in Way to Get Results.

Boston, April 23.—With a real team behind him this afternoon, a team that hit like fiends and fielded with machine-like precision, G. Napoleon Rucker, southpaw pitcher of the Brooklyn Superbas, won his first victory of the season at the expense of the hapless Braves by a score of 7 to 2.

There were those who were mean enough to predict that Nap would never get over the shock of being backed up in truly faultless style, but he seemed to enjoy the new and thrilling sensation. He even indulged himself somewhat, for in the ninth inning he let down the bars, and proclaimed open house, issued a pass and allowed four successive singles, which produced two runs for Boston.

The weather was ideal for baseball, and some 2,500 "fans" were on hand to watch the Braves struggle along. Since Cincinnati and Chicago battled to a tie, the Braves and Reds are deadlocked for sole ownership of the basement apartments. Both teams resent the joint holding.

Otto Hess pitched for Boston. He was willing enough and thought that if Rucker had his usual luck all would be well. There, however, came the trouble. Rucker was not playing at Ebbets Field, and the jinx was off. For two innings Hess was in danger, but thereafter he was harshly treated. He simply could not prevent Brooklyn from bunting the greater number of their eleven hits, and went down to defeat.

Rucker held the Braves to six hits, four of which, as previously told, came in the ninth inning, when the game was sewed up. He struck out four men. He had a narrow squeak in the first inning. Connolly greeted him with a slashing double and took third when Marvelli dumped a sacrifice along the lines. Myers fled to Hummel in right field and John relayed the ball to Cutshaw, whose accurate toss to the plate got the runner out at first.

Long John Hummel broke into the game, replacing Herbert Moran in right field, who had a home run when he deposited Meyer. The last named could not field well enough, and while Moran was able to hold the ball he could not bat. Hummel got two hits. One of these wallows was a mighty home run into the center field bleachers in the third inning, which was driven into the teeth of a strong wind. Cutshaw was on second at the time, and, of course, scored easily.

Three more runs were scored in the sixth frame on three hits and some weird efforts at defense by Boston. Two more happened along in the seventh, driven home by hard hitting.

Zack Wheat played a sterling game in left field, making three catches which were little short of wonderful. Connolly also played well.

JOHNSON MASTERS RED SOX

Allows Two Hits, Winning Shut-Out Victory for Senators.

Washington, April 23.—Walter Johnson pitched wonderful ball for the Senators against the Red Sox here today, blanking them by a score of 6 to 0.

He allowed only two hits, one of which, a Texas leaguer, came in the ninth inning, and gave two bases on balls, one in the seventh and one in the final frame. This accounted for all the visitors who reached bases. Johnson has now pitched twenty-six consecutive innings without being scored on.

Washington scored its runs by hitting Collins hard, among the hits being a double and three triples.

WHITE SOX PRESSED TO WIN

Double Play Breaks Up Rally of the Tigers in Last Inning.

Chicago, April 23.—Chicago defeated Detroit in the final game of the series here today by a score of 2 to 1, in a pitchers' battle between White and Hall.

The Tigers started a rally in the ninth inning, after an error by Weaver, which, coupled with a sacrifice and a single, netted a lone run for Detroit. A lightning double play, however, Rath to Boston, checked the rally.

The score follows:

Keating Pitches Yankees To Their Second Victory

Reeks Not for Baker, Collins and Others Sons of Swat.

NO RUNS FROM THREE HITS

Frank Chance and His Men Score Four Times in Holding Up the Athletics.

Philadelphia, April 23.—Holding the Philadelphia Athletics to three hits can be set down as a real tidy little pitching performance almost any day, and this is what Ray Keating, the New York youngster, accomplished when he faced the White Elephants here this afternoon.

The might sons of swat who wear the insignia of the Quaker City, quietly retired to their habitats and preserved a respectful attitude all during the reign of Frank Chance's new prize.

They were compelled to concede a shut-out by a score of 4 to 0 along with first place in the American League race, as Walter Johnson was taking the Boston Red Sox on a sightseeing tour where baseballs and victories are unknown.

Keating, who pitched the Yankees to their first victory over the Red Sox, had mystifying control of the ball, which caused even such potent hitters as J. Franklin Baker and "Stuffy" McInnis to strike out. Two of Philadelphia's safeties were made in the first frame, and for the next eight innings the New York marvel held them to one hit, which was garnered by Murphy, with one out in the eighth inning. He gave four passes, one of which was for strategic purposes, and fanned four men. As he was backed up by perfect fielding, the reason for the row of goose eggs beside the name of Philadelphia is apparent.

Only three members of the home team reached second base during the encounter, and none got past that point. With two out in the first inning Eddie Collins singled and stole the midway. Then Keating gave an inning as to what was to come by fanning the great Baker. For the next three frames the Athletics retired in order. McInnis walked to start the fifth, and after Doolan had sacrificed and Barry struck out, Keating pitched a perfect game, so that Keating could strike out Bush. With one gone in the seventh, Daley walked, took second on an out and stayed there when Thomas died easily on a dribble to the box. The youngster showed his fielding skill by handling seven chances, six of which were assists.

Mack sent a youngster named Bush, who is said to be a first cousin of Joe, to take the measure of Keating. He proved easy for the visitors, who picked his curves for nine hits in the eight innings he worked. Weller, Chase, Cree and Midkiff making two apiece.

Cottrell twirled the last frame, wherein a double by Weller and a single by Chase netted a run. Bush was unable to strike out a man, but gave only two passes.

McKechnie played a clever game at second base for the Yankees, handling eight chances perfectly and making some star plays. Eddie Collins and McInnis provided startling fielding features for the home side.

The Yankees counted in the second inning, when Cree walked, took second on an out and crossed the plate on McKechnie's safety. Two more runs were added in the sixth. With one out Cree singled to right, and Chance followed with a hit to the same spot. Midkiff's single to center scored Cree and put Chance on third. McKechnie fouled to Thomas, and after the catch Midkiff showed that he has a large quantity of gray matter in his head. He noticed that neither the famous Harry nor the renowned Collins was guarding second, so he started for the keystone square, and Thomas' throw failed to catch him, and Chance tallied from third. In the eighth Weller doubled and counted on Chase's single.

The score follows:

INDIANS DROP ANOTHER LORE BOWS TO SHUGRUE

Buffalo Finds Gaskell Easy in the Earlier Innings.

The Buffalo team took the Indians into camp again yesterday at Newark, this time by a score of 3 to 2. It was a case of superior baseball, and the victory enabled Buffalo to tie the Newark for the lead in the league race.

The Indians were outbatted and outfielded. The Buffalo men got to Gaskell in the first and third innings. Deiminger had a big day, getting two singles and a double out of three trips to the plate.

It was Deiminger who started the ball rolling in the first inning. He poked out a single, as did Murray, while Mann fitted in between with a base on balls. Deiminger scored on Murray's rap, and Mann came home, working a double steal successfully with Murray. Then in the third inning Truesdale singled and went to third on Collins's double. Here Deiminger uncorked his double, and Truesdale ambled home.

Newark's two tallies came in the third frame, the only session in which they could do anything with the pitching of Holmes. Swacina started the assault with a double. Eddie Zimmerman contributed a triple, and Gagner wound up with a single.

Harry Smith, manager of the Indians, made a shift in his batting order, changing Myers and Collins. Dalton also got in the game.

WELLMAN MEETS HIS MATCH

Hard Hitting Naps and Falkenberg Deal Out Defeat to Browns.

Cleveland, April 23.—Hard hitting by the Naps brought them a victory over the Browns today by a score of 6 to 2.

Wellman and Falkenberg, the two tallest pitchers in the American League, opposed each other. Wellman measures 6 feet 6 inches, Falkenberg one inch shorter. The batting of Jackson and Graney and the fielding of Lajole brought cheers from the crowd. Chapman's errors were chiefly responsible for both of St. Louis's scores.

The score follows:

BOXING RULINGS UPHOLD LAUGH AT AUTO BILLS

Suspensions Made in France to Hold in This Country.

COMMISSION SO DECIDES URGED BY SECRETARY MAY

Luther McCarty Here to Train for Bout Next Week with Frank Moran.

Suspensions by the French Federation of Boxing were recognized by the State Athletic Commission at its regular weekly meeting yesterday.

George Gunther, the Philadelphia heavyweight, was suspended in France for three months, beginning on March 17, for failing to appear for his match with Stuber. He presented a medical certificate to the effect that he was indisposed, but the French Federation refused to accept the certificate.

Tom Leary also was suspended for three months from March 8 for fouling, in addition to which he was fined $20.

Billy Papke was suspended for the remainder of the year for wilfully fouling Frank Klausus after repeated warnings by the referee, Franz Reichel.

The commission here upheld the suspensions in the cases of Gunther and Leary, but did not act in Papke's case, because he is indefinitely suspended in this country.

The commission ruled that no more bouts will be sanctioned at the 14th Street boxing club until that club pays the state taxes, amounting to about $700, which, according to the commission, was due three weeks ago.

The claims of Willie Gould, Eddie Powers, Mike Rosen and Joe Mooney against the Atlantic Garden A. C. could not be settled by the commission, owing to the conflicting testimony produced as to who is in authority at the club. They were advised to appeal to the civil courts. The total claims amount to approximately $385.

Patsy Callahan was suspended, pending a hearing for fouling Joe Coster in his bout at the Irving A. C. on Tuesday night. Jack Reichman, the referee, appeared to file the complaint against Callahan.

Luther McCarty, the recognized white heavyweight champion, who will meet Frank Moran at the St. Nicholas A. C. on next Wednesday, arrived in this city last night, and immediately went to his training quarters at Rye Beach. He has not boxed since he defeated Al Palmer last January, winning the belt offered by Tom McCarty, and he is anxious to get in all the work possible in order to be ready for Moran.

McCarty feels that he will have little trouble in winning, but he realizes that his coming opponent is a big, husky champion, and he is anxious to give with a hard punch and the ability to give and take punishment. He has hired a small sized army of husky sparring partners, and will not want for good, hard work.

Moran has been at work for several days under the direction of Joe Jeannette.

This will be an off night for the boxing "fans."

Chairman White also asserted that the reason many of his party leaders favored the enactment of the McClelland-McGrath bill was because of its provision for a state contributory to detect violations of the law.

"It is obvious," he said, "that this provision will be a helpful agency in building up a political machine."

James T. Bunt, representing the "Chauffeurs" and Cab Drivers' Union of New York, asked that renewal of chauffeurs' licenses be made mandatory. Senator White told Mr. Bunt that if he had his way, chauffeurs would only be required to pay for their original fee. "And that fee would be a small one," he added.

BAR BRITTON AND MOORE

Men May Not Appear in Philadelphia Rings, Says Order.

Philadelphia, April 23.—Director Porter of the Department of Public Safety issued an order to-day that Jack Britton, the Chicago lightweight, and Pat Moore, a local boxer, shall be barred from appearing in boxing matches in this city in the future.

The order was issued following a report from a police official that the bout in which these two boxers engaged on Monday night was a "fake," and that those who paid to witness the so-called contest were cheated out of their money.

WINS IN STRAIGHT FALLS

Americus Makes Short Work of Lundin at New York A. C.

Americus, the heavyweight wrestler of the South, defeated Hjalmer Lundin, champion of Sweden, in straight falls at the New York Athletic Club last night. Americus won the first fall after 12 minutes and 25 seconds, with a double arm lock, and pinned Lundin to the mat in the second bout after 12 minutes and 5 seconds, with a neck and croch hold. The work was fast, and Americus wriggled out of several tight situations.

George Rothner, the lightweight champion, defeated Bob Sinclair, champion of Canada, in two falls. Sinclair gave his opponent a lively struggle in the first encounter, but was finally pinned down by a scissor hold in 5:15. Rothner won the second fall in 1:45, with a further arm and body hold.

A fight enlivened the end of the J. J. Bunt bout between Will Bingham, of England, and Martin Ludek, of the Educational Alliance. Bingham defeated his opponent with a straight hold in 14:00, which did not appeal to Ludek. The latter arose and struck Bingham, and they were soon in a hot mix-up. Ludek was getting the worst of it when peace-makers intervened.

The summaries follow:

Jack Nido, City A. C., defeated "Young Ajax" in 5:45 with a scissor hold and in 5:15 with a further arm and body hold.

Gus Scholten, Baltimore, defeated Hjalmer Lundin, Sweden, with a scissor hold in 12:25 and in 12:45 with a neck and croch hold.

George Rothner, America, defeated Bob Sinclair, Canada, with a scissor hold in 5:15 and in 1:45 with a further arm and body hold.

George Lurie, Europe, defeated Karl Posselt, Bohemia, with a scissor hold in 12:45 and in 12:55 with a neck and croch hold.

Will Bingham, England, defeated Al J. Bunt, Martin Ludek, Educational Alliance, with a straight hold in 14:00.

GERTZ WINS THE TROPHY

Second in Columbia Run, but Gets Van Amringe Cup.

M. Gertz, a freshman, won the Van Amringe cup by taking second in the last of a series of handicap "cross-country" races at Columbia yesterday afternoon. Gertz had a record of two firsts and two seconds to his credit in the series of four runs, making a total of six points. His nearest competitors were F. G. von Kummern, another freshman, and M. M. Lorenz, a junior, who were tied at twelve points each.

E. B. Slade, a junior, who has run on the "Varsity" cross-country team for two years, won the final race with a handicap of 1:30. He did not need the advantage, however, for he covered the five-mile course over Morningside and Riverside Drives in 28 minutes 28 seconds, the best actual time of the race, and finished well ahead of Gertz, who did not extend himself and took second easily from scratch in 28 minutes 43 seconds.
